JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange will hold its bi-monthly meeting Friday night, December 14th, in the Grange Hall.

A Christmas program and party is being planned by the lecturer and her committee.

Each member is to bring a 25¢ gift suitable for either a boy or girl.

Refreshments will be served by Corrine Lawrence and Jane Harris.

TEACHERS MEETING HELD

Shining foil Christmas trees, glowing red candles, delicately decorated sandwiches and desserts and a background of carol singing made the December meeting of the Old Rochester Regional Teachers' Association last Thursday at the Mattapoisett Center School a most pleasant event.

In charge of refreshments were Clara Morgan, Rheta Tuttle, Jean Waterhouse and Gladys Charest, members of the Center School faculty.

Decorations were by Ruth Schofield, Elizabeth Cushman and Marilyn Carter, also members of the Center School faculty.

During the business meeting presided over by Mr. Harold Gay, president, it was announced that the school children of Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester will conduct a candy sale in the very near future to bene-

Following the business meeting during which discussion was held concerning the controversial teachers' salaries schedules and merit ratings Mr. Otis Severance, director of the Plymouth County Teachers' Association spoke on the Teachers' Credit Union and also on the American Field Service.

TRIUMPH IN MARION

The audience at the Marion Art Center Playhouse roared in tribute to a virtuoso performance of the opening of "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" last Friday evening. A daring drama unfolded upon the stage of greed, lust and depravity ensnaring the wholesome innocence of a sweet damsel ever to grace the boards. Ah! the grace, the charm, the beauty of the lovely Nellie Lovelace as portrayed by Jackie Lenz is never to be forgotten. Like a young doe of a green forest glade she is hounded and hunted by as evil a serpent ever to strike this part of the country. Lawrence Lamarre, actor, takes his part with such obvious relish that he wears the personality of evil like a garment of his own. To watch his cunning plots bear bitter fruit is to be exposed to the designs of Satan himself. His lantern jaw is bedecked with a goatee and his moustache attempts to hide the cruel lines etched upon his face. This fiend exists but for heinous designs of lust and greed. Tied by the bounds of trickery to Munro Murgatroyd, as this villain is called, is his "wife" Ida Rhinegold, played by Aurora Anderson. Her innocence spoiled, she is forced to work as "the toast of New Haven" to support this rotter until he casts her into a home for the criminally intoxicated to unburden himself for further conquests. After gaining her freedom she is used once more as a tender bait in the trap he is about to set. Displaying her well turned ankle upon the stage she turns the head of Adam Oakheart, sweetheart of the gentle Nel, played by John Tenbrook. Thus true love is deceived, murder is done, Nel falls upon hard times. Murgatroyd plots and bears false witness, steals yet another innocent heart. This is spectacle in the grand manner working upon the passions of the audience until they cry out in anguish and despair, delight and hope in the future.

Also in the production were Larry Brooks as Mookie Maguggins, Lee Horan as Fleurette, Priscilla Lacey as Widow Lovelace, Ruth Sinnock as Mrs. Astorbilt, Joan Prescott as Leonie Astorbilt and Lisa Luchini as Little Nell.

This show is a riot. If you are fortunate to be able to obtain tickets to the small cafe type theater, by all means prepare to laugh. It's a magnificent display of period acting.

Next Saturday night's performance is sold out, but there are still some tickets available for Friday night's performance and there is a matinee on Saturday afternoon. For reservations call Mrs. Charles Castelli, Marion 503.

The Four Butchers, a quartet comprised of David Palamountain, Phil Huston, Donald Gardner and Ted Babbitt, entertained with several numbers during the intermission.

Assisting with the production were Bess Bendall, production; Bill Beardsley, director; Marie Liddell, prompter; Marjorie Orr, Tony Lopes, with a 346, was head waiter as the Knotty Pine Cafe served goose eggs to Hartley's Garage in the Rochester Bowling League. Art Tripp chopped out a 361 to lead the Woodchoppers to a 2 to 1 win from Dennis Mahoney & Sons. Johnnie Hayes hit 372 pins for the victims. Green Hartley found the range on 354 ducks as Hartley Saw Mill took 2 from Herbs TV Shop. (Maury Gifford 336). Led by Al Souza's 377, Lloyds Market went on a spree at Hillers Garage. Ed Leary had a 345 for the bewildered Garage.

WINTER SALE HELD AT CHURCH

Silvered pine cones, poinsettas and wreaths decorated the vestry of the Rochester First Congregational Church in keeping with the Christmas theme of the Winter sale sponsored by the women of the church. The display tables were draped with white coverings and decorated with Christmas ornaments, holly and net Christmas trees.

In spite of inclement weather, a large number of area residents responded to the sale.

The supper was, also, well attended. The dining hall was highlighted with the Christmas motif. The tables were complemented with holiday napkins, assorted greens, silvered cones, holly and berries.

Mrs. Greenwood Hartley was in charge of the supper. Assisting Mrs. Hartley were Mrs. Gustaf Johnson, Mrs. George Church, Mrs. Arnold Chadwick and Mrs. Hazel Willet.

In charge of the dining room were Mrs. Ethel Gary, Mrs. William Watling and Mrs. George Lawrence.

Table attendants included Roger Nolan, Raymond Dagget, Richard Potter, Robert Lawrence,

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Production is moving along in high gear for the Old Rochester Regional High School Senior Class production The Solid Gold Cadillac. Play nights are December 14 and 15. Tickets are now on sale at Brown's Pharmacy, Marion; Tinkham's Pharmacy, Mattapoisett; and Lloyds Market, Rochester. Proceeds from the play will go into the class treasury to help finance senior expenses.

Gail Gibbons and Paul Sowden have leading roles along with the "conivingest" Board of Directors you'll ever hope to meet -- Peter Morris, Reese Leonard, Charles Briggs and Douglas Crabbe. The four have hopes of getting rich quick until the innocent Mrs. Par-

AFS EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

A meeting of the executive board for the new chapter of the American Field Service for Marion, Rochester and Mattapoisett was held at the Old Rochester Regional High School. Mrs. A. Barton Cummins, chairman, presided.

Mrs. Cummins reviewed the records and literature turned over to her by Mr. John R. Minter, former chairman of the Marion Chapter, A.F.S. The new three-town chapter is fortunate in having on its board people who are experienced in A.F.S. matters. The vice-chairman, Mrs. Frank F. Sylvia, has been associated with the New Bedford Chapter, A.F.S., on its Homes Committee and has had a foreign student in her home. Mr. Otis C. Severance, treasurer, is a former chairman of the Marion A.F.S. Chapter. Mrs. William B. Macy, chairman of the Homes Committee for Marion, is a past member of the Marion Chapter. Chairman of the Homes Committee for Rochester, Mrs. Clifton Chase, is a former member of the New Bedford Chapter and has had a foreign student in her home.

Mr. Severance noted that a name for the new chapter would have to be chosen and this will be brought up at the next regular meeting.

A letter from the A.F.S. office in New York was read informing all chapters that in view of the postal increase in January which will add $20,000 to expenses, plus the rise in minimum Atlantic fares, which will mean another increase of 32,000 the directors have decided that they must raise the participat-

The appointment of a finance committee chairman for each town was discussed and also the appointment of a school A.F.S. director. The importance of giving the program impetus was stressed by Mrs. Cummins, and although the organizational meeting of the new chapter was well attended, there is a need for more members. All parents of Old Rochester Regional High School students should be especially interested in the school A.F.S.

CHRISTMAS TREE SPRAYING

Lt. Loren Mosher of the Mattapoisett Fire Department wishes to let the people know that the firefighters will spray Christmas trees again this year as they have in the past. This service is free of charge.

Tree spraying hours will be 7 P.M. to 9 P.M. on December 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22, and from 10 A.M. to 12 noon on December 16; also 10 A.M. to 12 noon and 2 P.M. to 4 P.M. on December 23, at the Fire Station.

This tree spraying does not make the tree fire proof, but will help to stop a flash fire.

FUTURE NURSES OF OR TO HOLD FOOD SALE

A food sale will be held in the Rochester Library December 15 from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M. The sale is sponsored by the Rochester members of the Future Nurses Club of the Old Rochester Regional High School, and the money will be used for different projects during the school year. Some of the money is donated to the scholarship given at graduation for any senior girl that is qualified, and is entering a school of nursing.

MINISTER SPEAKS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

The Rev. Arthur Lundberg, minister of the First Congregational Church at Rochester Center, was guest speaker at the December meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club. Mr. Lundberg gave a most interesting account of his seven years as a missionary in Czechoslovakia from 1927 to 1934. Mr. and Mrs. Lundberg lived in Prague, the capital, for two years and then moved to a village with a population of about 5,000. He told of their culture and modes of living and exhibited pictures, costumes and colorful pieces of embroidery. This is Mr. Lundberg's first year with the Rochester Church.

Mrs. Marian Church presided at the business meeting. Money was voted for the annual Christmas party for Rochester children. Mrs. George Church was general chairman of the party held on Monday evening, December 10, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Kenneth Winslow, chairman of the Veterans' Committee, reported that she had finished the large afghan and had delivered it. She also reported that the Christmas boxes for veterans had been filled and sent to the Brockton VA Hospital on December 2nd.

Donations to Tobey Hospital Snack Bar of pastries during the week of April 15 to April 19 was voted.

A lovely centerpiece in keeping with the Christmas theme was used on the refreshment table. Hostesses were Mmes. Everett

The sportsmen's show stars Ted Williams and a host of internationally famous outdoorsmen.

Rochester First Congregational Church, Friday, at 7:30 P.M. He will explain the work of the National Association of Congregational Churches.

He is author of a study guide used by a group studying Congregationalism in the Rochester First Congregational Church parsonage for the past 10 weeks. The Rev. Arthur R. Lundberg conducted the lessons.

Members of the First Congregational Church are urged to attend the meeting Friday, so they may be prepared to cast a vote, at a later date, to decide whether the church should join the association. Meeting open to the public.

WHIST PARTY

There will be a whist party Saturday, December 21st, at St. Rose of Lima Church, Rochester at 8 P.M.

Dear friends,

One of our pioneer citizens recalls the burial methods of 50 or 60 years ago.

The clergyman always directed the funeral. As a rule there was no preparation of the body for burial. Kind friends volunteered to look after the details as best they could. The funeral party always waited to witness the filling of the grave.

What a contrast to the comforting service rendered by the modern funeral director!

Respectfully,

Carl C Cornwell
